

INTRODUCTION

Dr Sally Hasell is a microbiologist specialising in the area of food safety and food regulation. Currently she has a keen interest in women's education, especially in areas traditionally male-dominated and in supporting women to achieve their goals. Dr Hasell is offering a scholarship to a female student who is studying at the Wellington Institute of Technology Limited (WeITec) in 2021.

VALUE

One scholarship of $3,000 will be available in 2021. The scholarship may be held concurrently with another bursary or scholarship provided the rules for those apply. The scholarship will be paid direct to the course fees of the successful applicant.

CRITERIA

- 1 Applicants must be female students who have completed one trimester or more at WeITec during 2020.
- 2 Applicants must be New Zealand Citizens or have permanent residency.
- 3 The criteria of selection will be based on:
 - demonstration of a genuine desire to succeed in their chosen field of study;
 - good attendance during the programme they attended at Wellington Institute of Technology Limited (WeITec);
 - good level of academic achievement during the programme they attended at Wellington Institute of Technology Limited (WeITec);
 - financial or other circumstances, which could limit the applicant's ability to continue their course of study.
- 4 Applicants must be enrolled at WeITec in a full-time programme for 2021, undertaking study in an area of employment which is under-represented by women e.g. Construction, Engineering or Information Technology.
