New Zealand Certificate in Animal Care (Companion Animals) (Level 3)

📖	Level 3
🕒	17 weeks, (part-time options available)
📅	24 Feb 2025 (Petone) 07 Jul 2025 (Petone)
💰	$4,554 (indicative for 2025 intake)

This programme will give you an entry-level animal care qualification. It will also give you a taste of the wider range of animal-related qualifications available and allow you to get a feel for tertiary study before attempting higher-level qualifications. It's also a great first step if you want to enter an animal-related profession such as an animal care attendant, pet shop work or kennel and cattery animal carer.

Programme outline

You will gain the skills and knowledge to work in a role assisting with the care of companion animals (cats, dogs, rabbits, rodents, and birds), in a variety of settings such as pet stores, animal rescue centres, pet grooming, animal day care, kennels and catteries etc.

Graduates will have the skills, knowledge, and attributes to assist with the care of animals under limited supervision.

More detail about this qualification

This programme is delivered by blended learning i.e., face to face and online learning. This means some of your lessons may be delivered via Moodle (our online learning platform), which will require you to have a computer and internet access at home.

You will be required to attend two on-campus days a week.

Practicum

You must complete at least 40 hours of practicum in a workplace environment. A suitable placement could be at an animal facility such as a cattery, kennels, doggy day-care, SPCA, or animal shelter etc.

If you are not already working or volunteering in one of these areas, we recommend you arrange a placement close to home. Our staff will assist you, if you have difficulty finding a placement.

Placements should be one day a week for approximately 3-4 hours. Placements can start from the beginning of week three, but only after you have completed your 'Passport to Practicum'.

Course related costs

The following costs are approximate. Confirmed costs and details on where to purchase your uniform will be sent out prior to the programme's start date.

- Uniform and shoes: $100
- Placement travel costs: these will vary depending on where you live and where your placements are.

Entry requirements
